All the pleasures of the bath

www.condorbalneo.fr

A brand of pleasure for the pleasures of the bath

Condor products are manufactured to meet the demand of those for whom bathing is not an ordinary moment, but an exceptional and precious time for well-being. A bath should be prepared, savoured. It is an invaluable moment for relaxation that requires the best in order to produce the best.

Condor offers several ranges of products all possessing a very high quality of materials and finishing. Whatever your budget, choosing Condor guarantees a connoisseur's product that will accompany you with the pleasures of the bath for a long time.

And as choice is always a luxury, Condor proposes an almost unlimited variety of products. From the corner bathtub to the customized product, the design and Creation range, Condor always lives up to your expectations, whatever they may be.

All Condor products are exclusively designed and made in France. Most are also available with whirlpool systems.
